Lincoln's Legendary Words

Containing just 272 words and delivered in about two minutes, President Abraham Lincoln's Gettysburg Address is among the most famous speeches in American history. Its introductory words are still widely quoted: "Four score and seven years ago our fathers brought forth on this continent a new nation, conceived in liberty and dedicated to the proposition that all men are created equal."

Lincoln wrote the speech for the dedication ceremony of the Gettysburg National Cemetery on Nov. 19, 1863. Just four months earlier, the three-day battle at the Pennsylvania town involved thousands of casualties and would become the turning point of the Civil War. The president honored the fallen soldiers and cited the ideals first laid out in the Declaration of Independence.

Five copies of the speech are known to exist, all written in Lincoln's hand, but each a slightly different version. The most-reproduced manuscript — and the only copy that is signed and dated — was given by Lincoln to a Union colonel to be printed as a fundraiser for soldiers. Today, it is on display in the Lincoln Bedroom of the White House.

A Letter from our Executive Director

Dear Barrington Family,

I am happy to announce that our renovations are complete! I hope you are all as proud of your beautifully updated home as I am. There was a lot of work between flooring, painting, remodeling the Billiard's Room and putting new artwork and furniture throughout the building. We sincerely appreciate all of the residents' patience and understanding during this time.

November will be filled with many exciting activities, so please check out the calendar for more details. We will be doing lots of fall crafts to help get our building decorated and feeling like fall.

We are excited to announce we will be hosting a Thanksgiving Buffet at The Barrington for all residents and their guests. We will be having traditional Thanksgiving fare including carving stations at this buffet. This Thanksgiving Buffet will take place on Nov. 14, 2015, and will start at 11 a.m. We will be handing out invitations with your seating time in the beginning of November so residents can invite their families and plan ahead. Because this is a sit-down meal involving guests and residents, reservations will be required so we can plan for and accommodate all of our guests. Reservations can be made at the Concierge desk or by calling (727) 585-5900.

We are still seeking good neighbors to live at The Barrington. If you have friends, neighbors or family members who are thinking about senior living, please send them our way. Remember you receive a $500 check after they are here for 90 days!

Please have your family and friends check out our website at www.barringtonseniorliving.com and follow us on Facebook, <https://www.facebook.com/thebarringtonseniorliving>. We update Facebook weekly with pictures from our events, information on upcoming events and educational articles.

Regards,

Shelby Anderson
