Mystery Resident: Guess Who I Am!

Who am I?

I was born in Stoneham, Mass., lived in East Booth Bay Harbor, Maine, Boston, Colorado and Miami. I was a businesswoman for many years. I was the manager for the Aspen Times among many other newspapers. I have three children, Lee, Sarah and Donald.

I like to read and have a special place in my heart for my fellow man. Each and every person is unique and special to me. I am blessed to have such a wonderful family and great friends.

Here I am in a picture with Ted Williams, the very famous baseball player from the Boston Red Socks. The press called me the "mystery woman" and assumed Ted Williams and I were romantically involved but we were not. We were just exchanging baby pictures in this photograph.

Have you guessed yet?

I am Janet Garwood.

Greetings Barrington Family and Friends,

Spring has finally sprung! May is the perfect month to get out and enjoy the amazing weather Florida has to offer. We have sunshine, sunshine and more sunshine. Some of the fun events planned for the upcoming months include: a Dolphin Cruise, a baseball game to see our beloved Rays, picnics at the beach, dinner out, a Cinco de Mayo Party and a Mother's Day Brunch on May 8.

We have a special Luau planned for May 19 at 6:30 p.m. Let's bring Hawaii to Largo with traditional food samplings and Hawaiian dancing!

Please join us for our Hawaiian Luau and invite your family, friends and neighbors! We look forward to hearing from you and welcome your activity ideas and suggestions for outings, dining out and any Life Enrichment ideas you may have!

May: Embrace each day with joy!

Special event that happened in May: Charles Lindbergh flew solo across the Atlantic Ocean in May 1927.

Let's Dance, My Dear!

Let's dance, my dear.

Let's party!

Literature's Memorable Moms

Throughout literature, mothers are among the many characters beloved by readers. Peruse these memorable moms who come from the pages of classic novels.

Mrs. Bennet: With five daughters, this English matriarch from Jane Austen's "Pride and Prejudice" is anxiously preoccupied with ensuring they all marry well. While her foolish exploits tend to drive suitors away, they also provide comic relief for readers.

Margaret March: Marmee, as she is called by her daughters, is kind and patient and provides wise counsel to Jo, Meg, Beth and Amy, the "Little Women" created by Louisa May Alcott. Unconventional by 19th-century standards, Mrs. March advises her girls to value education and self-reliance.

Caroline Ingalls: This real-life pioneer wife to Charles and "Ma" to five children was immortalized by daughter Laura Ingalls Wilder in her "Little House" children's books. Caroline worked hard alongside her husband, building her family's homesteads in the Midwest during the late 1800s.

Marilla Cuthbert: Living on a farm on Canada's Prince Edward Island, crusty spinster Marilla becomes adoptive mother to fiery young orphan Anne in Lucy Maud Montgomery's "Anne of Green Gables." Stern but fair, Marilla grows to show her love for Anne despite their differences.
